PRESENTACIÓN Y CONTEXTUALIZACIÓN

INTRODUCTORY REMARKS

This course is aimed at offering a specialized approach to the interface between European Law and domestic law from the point of view of the application and interpretation by the Spanish courts and judges, focusing not only on the theoretical formulation of the autonomous involvement in implementing European Union Law, but also on the existing problems related to its practical application.

Special relevance will be attached to the principles governing this relationship, such as supremacy and direct effect.

Emphasis will be placed on the influence of the novelties deriving from the entry into force of the Lisbon Treaty in our case-law.

REQUISITOS Y/O RECOMENDACIONES PARA CURSAR ESTA ASIGNATURA

RECOMMENDED PREVIOUS QUALIFICATIONS

Students must have a broad legal background (we assume that they have coursing a Degree in Law or Political Sciences) and more specifically, a previous knowledge of EU Law and International Law.

Sufficient knowledge of English will be required, and French skills would be helpful as well.

COMPETENCIAS QUE ADQUIERE EL ESTUDIANTE

RESULTADOS DE APRENDIZAJE

INTENDED RESULTS

Knowledge: Students are expected to acquire extensive and advanced knowledge of the integration of European legal order in our domestic system through the case-law. Learning will be based on the materials referred to or provided by the teaching staff, mainly the text of the most relevant sentences. If required, academic guidance will be available online. In this regard, the teaching staff is committed to providing guidance that is tailored to the specific needs of individual students.

Skills: Students are expected to develop their ability to understand the meaning of domestic case-law in the interpretation and incorporation

They are supposed to acquire a deep knowledge of the tendency of Spanish courts and judges in the integration of European Law.

Attitudes: Students are encouraged to have a positive attitude towards the harmonization of european law made by courts and judges and the role of our judicial system. A good disposition towards autonomous work is essential to maximize the results of the course.

This combination of knowledge, skills and attitudes will prepare students for the task of understanding the complexities of the EU legal framework, providing them with the tools required to understand the challenges it faces and its possible evolution and development.
